Dear <Salutation Name>,

As a student at this great liberal arts school, I feel valued knowing that a wide range of people – from faculty to generous supporters – invest in me. Because so many people care, I am prepared for my future.

Hartwick has prepared me with so many experiences that ensure I am technically and academically trained to become an exceptional nurse. I know I can go anywhere.

The opportunity to study transcultural health in Jamaica let me experience life from a different point of view and explore many different perspectives. I was able to grow out of my comfort zone, and now I know I can do almost anything. That J Term opportunity has changed me forever.

The endless Hartwick experiences are so transformative because they make us into who we are today, and who we will be as leaders tomorrow. I want the same opportunities and experiences to continue for those behind me.

Thank you for giving to Hartwick to support our experiences.

Sincerely,

ALICIA GOODE '17
